Dear Fords,

We hope you enjoyed Friends & Family Weekend!

Co-Presidents
Maria Bojorquez-Gomez ‘16 and Claire Dinh ‘16 are also the Chairs of Facilities Fund Allocation Committee and are collecting applications for any projects that will enhance campus life. Maria has been addressing the lack of mention of international students in the Constitution, as Claire will be working with Damon Motz-Storey ‘16 to push for gender-neutral language in the Constitution. They are working with Communications to discuss revamping the SC website to best address student needs.

Co-Vice Presidents
Brianna Robbins ‘15 and Diana Perry ‘15 have worked with Appointments Committee to select a student representative for the Diversity Task Force. They are appointing CP, AMA, HCO and PAF co-heads -- applications are due at 11:59pm on Friday 10/24 and interviews will be on Sunday 10/26. More info about committees:

Officers

The Officer of Academics, Emily Krasnow ’17, has evaluated the course listings to see where our departments are lacking. She is advocating for the creation of a pre-health sociology course to help prepare pre-med students for the newer MCAT.

Officer of the Arts - Ari Giles ’15 plans to meet with James Weissinger from the Hurford Center for Arts and Humanities about a potential project for next semester.

Our Officer of Athletics, Alex Love ’15, hopes to integrate more discussions regarding athletics culture into the Customs program by working with PAFs. She plans to organize an “adopt-a-team” program that will encourage halls and friend groups to commit to supporting teams at games. Alex is also looking into funding for T-shirt give-aways at big games.

Our Officer of Campus Life, Rachael Garnick ’17, has worked with the Office of Residential Life and other committees to revise the Blue Bus and Swat Van schedules. She’s looking to improve the laundry machine system. Rachael will soon host community forums for students to voice their suggestions and concerns with regard to campus life.

Our Officer of Multiculturalism - Tobi Alliyu ’16, has been meeting with different affinity groups. She was involved organizing the community forum regarding Ferguson and the (Ir)reverence Conference. She has begun preparations for this year’s Unity Day.

Class Representatives

Our class representatives have been working on SC’s “Face Wall” on the WCC’s ground floor, so you’ll know what we look like and who to look for if you ever need us!

Deana Rauh ’16 is SC’s representative to the Campus Safety Committee.
Gabriel Delabra ’17
Matthew Berger ’18 is SC’s representative to JSAAPP.
