

Dear Fords,

We hope that the semester is wrapping up nicely for you!

Co-Presidents

Claire Dinh '16 and Jason Hirsch '16 hosted the Fireside Chat with Kim on Wednesday to allow students to share their concerns with College President Kim Benston. They have collaborated with ResLife Committee to revise the Smoking Policy, so that Room Draw will better meet the needs of both smokers and non-smokers. With Julia, Yan, and Jess, they met with Jess Lord and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee to learn more about the recruitment process and for more insight into how they can better bridge the gap between athletes and non-athletes.

Co-Vice Presidents

Misael Cespedes '16 and Jay Garcia '16, with Appointments Committee, have appointed students to Collections Committee, Honor Council Librarian, FUCS, Haverfest Heads, Speakers Committee, and HCO and AMA Co-Heads.

Co-Treasurers

Ian Andolsek '17 and Tristan Pepin '18 are collecting final receipts for reimbursement. Their last office hours are on Friday the 11th, with special office hours during finals for BLAST and Lunt workers who are working past Friday. With Claire, Jason, and Mike from the SAO, they are streamlining the budgeting process and making communication of budgets to clubs more transparent.

Co-Secretaries

Dylan Gearinger '19 and Madeline Guth '19 are working with Mike Elias and Don Campbell to start up the application process for the Facilities Fund ($25,000 will be allotted to projects to improve student spaces). They are updating the Students' Constitution with revisions from last Plenary.

Officers

The Officer of Academics, Emily Krasnow '17, is working on gen-ed requirements. She will be hosting a community forum for student feedback with John Francis Vilnes next semester. She is part of the Visible Curriculum Working Group, which needs a student representative for the humanities and/or social sciences.

The Officer of the Arts, Alana Thurston '16, continues to write art & music weekly updates. She attended the Affinity Group meeting to talk about how the Officer of the Arts and the Music and Arts Community House can support these groups. She is planning activities for finals week!

The Officer of Athletics, Jessica Koshinski '18, has gathered information about the experiences of student-athletes, non-varsity athletes, and non-athletes to try to find a way to allow these groups to collaborate more on campus. She has worked with the Men's and Women's Lacrosse coaches to help create a promotional video for the bystander-intervention Step-Up program. She is talking to different resources on campus to supply club sports with medical equipment.

The Officer of Campus Life, Saumya Varma '18 met with Mitch Wein and Don Campbell to finalize the anticipated changes to the laundry in all the dorms. She is working on the Blue Bus and Tri-Co Van schedule with Zach and a group of 8 other students. She has also finalized plans for the DC Oval renovations.

The Officer of Multiculturalism, Adedoyin Eisape '17, has worked with the Rufus Jones Board to finalize plans for the MLK Day Retreat, including the creation of an application. She is working to set up office hours for budgeting next semester, so affinity groups can talk to her about upcoming events and so that she can help to advocate for them during budgeting. Given feedback from the recent affinity group co-head meeting, she plans to start a blog or social media method of sharing events pertaining to multiculturalism.

Class Representatives

Hunter Sentner '16 released a survey to the senior class to see how it uses the CCPA as a resource.

Zach Alden '17 is working especially closely with Josh Fried on revisions to the Blue Bus and Tri-Co van schedule. He met with the Safety and Security Committee to discuss roofs, the Smoking Policy and a party registration form. He has been subbing for Tristan at office hours, writing checks with Ian.

Yancheng Dai '18 is assisting Jessica in her work to bridge the gap between athletes and non-athletes. He is also assisting Reid Cohen on the 3S video project.

Julia Blake '19 has met regularly with the First Year Dean's Council and with Dean Martinez to discuss goals and plans for spring semester.

Thanks for reading! If you have any questions, comments or concerns about any of our projects write to sc@haverford.edu!

Best wishes,
Claire and Jason
